Size Matters

Are Sasquatch sightings making the news every time you leave a footprint?

At least now your footwear doesn't have to be beastly. Enter Divna, the online store specializing in cute shoes sized 9-13. (No more blank salespeople stares when asking for double digits.)

Just when we were beginning to think elongated style was an urban legend, Veronica Ljubicic brought us back to reality (without resorting to keeping a cobbler on retainer). And with her just-launched e-commerce, our dreams of booties, ballet flats and more are just a click away.

We can't wait to add some biker edge with Jessica Bennett studded black boots ($240), then play demure with a classic patent leather pump ($150). Thrilled with this much choice, we hardly notice the tab (though the special Sale! section helps).

Finally, bigger is not only better, it's cuter, too.
